It is important that you meet as your response is very important to the organising committee. If you don't go to Mass at this time it is very important that you go to one of these meetings. You are especially invited. If you want a lively parish you can help to create one!

The Irish Catholic: It is important to have a Catholic Paper in your home. In this way you can read all about church matters, and so be informed. You may order it by Post and it will arrive each week.

Cavan Institute: Cavan Institute will host a "Virtual Open Week" from Monday 24th May to Friday May 28th 2021 for full time courses starting in September 2021. A full programme of events available at www.cavaninstitute.ie

Joint Message for Pentecost from Bishops of Clogher: We must continue to communicate the language of love and hope across all barriers and boundaries. It would be so easy after this long period of restrictions to move to despair and loose hope. Yet we believe that there are signs of new hope all around us in the vaccination programme, and the good response to the public health guidance. Let us encourage one another to communicate the hope who by Gods help our common life will slowly return, and together seek his grace to renew our lives. So we pray that the Holy Spirit of Pentecost may inspire us so that we communicate in our words and deeds the hope we have in God. May we as Christian people speak of our belief in the transforming power and of God and by his Spirit to work together for the rebuilding and reenergising of our churches, and Society. May the spirit of God fill us with all joy, hope, and peace
