The Month of November is the Month of the Dead. November is a bleak month. The bare trees and dark nights speak their own language. It is no wonder that during this month we pray for our dead. It is no wonder that we think of all those friends who have died and were so important in our lives. Indeed it is a time when we think of our own death. In this month many of us visit the parish graveyard, and find out that the visit takes longer than usual. For we begin to notice and read familiar names on the head stones of those we knew so well. It is important therefore that we keep in mind-- Christ- the one who gives meaning to it all. It is important that we keep Jesus in mind, for Jesus is risen from the dead and has cast a new light on all the dead. Jesus is risen from the dead, he has gone back to his father in heaven and he has made it possible of all of us to join him in that great banquet which he has prepared for all of us. The Resurrection is the heart of the Gospel, and the Resurrection gives our visit to the graveyard a new meaning. So during November it is important that we read the many accounts of his Resurrection in the New Testament. Our reading of the different times when he appeared to his disciples shines a new light on death, and on our graveyard. In reading them our hearts will begin to burn within us as they did for the two disciples on their way to Emmaus. We will find the different accounts at the end of our each Gospel. Make sure that you too will be changed as you become familiar with them. We could become familiar with the various accounts of his Resurrection as we visit the Blessed Sacrament, for reading the scriptures is a very high form of Prayer for it opens the door into the mind of God. We know this from the scriptures themselves, for God says to us in Isaiah 55:10 "Yes as the rain and the snow come down from heavens and do not return without watering the earth; making it yield; and giving growth to provide seed for the sower, and bread for the eating so the Word that goes forth from my mouth does not return to me empty without carrying out my will and succeeding in what it was sent to do." Here God is telling us that when we hear his word we become a changed person. So don't forget to lift the New Testament this November. You will be uplifted, changed and you will see life in a new light.
